Spring 2018 Workshops/Classes for Adults

ONE DAY WORKSHOP

Saturday, Mar. 24

WORKSHOP TUITION: $65

Controlling the Image and its Meaning Photography Workshop

9:00 am - 3:00 pm

Instructor: Ron Holman

A brief discussion about manual settings and exposure control on DSLRs followed by a brief photo walk around Arts Visalia to experiment with these ideas ending with discussion of the results and how emotion and information are conveyed visually. Limited to 15 students of any level.

SUPPLIES OR MATERIALS: This workshop is for all levels of photographers. Each student should bring their own DSLR camera, memory card, and fresh batteries to take pictures. All other materials needed will be provided. The student would also need to provide their own lunch, as the class extends through the lunch period.

WEDNESDAY CLASSES

SUPPLIES OR MATERIALS FOR CLASSES: These classes are for all levels and great for beginners. Tuition for each session includes all four classes. The materials will be provided for every class. Come and learn.

Feb. 7, 14, 21, 28

CLASS TUITION: $75

Watercolor, 6:30 pm - 8:30 pm

Instructor: Lynn Ramires

During these classes, you will be taught the skill of using water-based paints and the expression they place on the surface of paper whether controlled or uncontrolled, as well as the history behind watercolor and its application.

Mar. 7, 14, 21, 28

CLASS TUITION: $85

Classical Still-Life Painting for Beginners, 6:30 pm - 8:30 pm

Instructor: Brianna Lee

In this class workshop series, you will be guided through a series of painting exercises in color mixing, painting techniques and composition for still-life painting in a classic style. Designed for beginners but also beneficial for experienced artists, students will walk away with a better understanding of how to create a successful work of art!
